On December 20, 2021, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The bullying campaign went on for over a year until it came to her parents' attention and they contacted Roblox about it. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.

In July 2021, Roblox had allegedly banned several high-profile creators due to the fact they made violent games. Although Roblox claims users were banned "due to improper behaviour" nothing has been proven yet. The situation is occurring in many forums and websites. In July 2021, ROBLOX put out a statement saying that they did not ban any creators, but instead were involved in a legal dispute with the people who claimed to have been banned.[82] They later said that anyone who was banned for making offensive content was "part of an organized effort by bad actors to scam our users. We have no tolerance for this behavior and we're doing everything we can to protect our community."[83]

Mobile App: On September 5th, 2021, ROBLOX released their first official mobile app for iOS and Android devices. The app has various features such as the ability to customize avatars, the ability to chat with other Robloxians, even add people as friends. It also allows users to play games that they can't play on their website.

On July 11, 2021, the "Custom Games" section of the website was temporarily removed due to a bug that caused players to be unable to see their own creations. The section was returned later that day.
