On March 18, 2021, ROBLOX introduced Virtual Pre-Orders which allow users to purchase merchandise months before it is released for general purchases. These items include apparel and accessories for your avatar. On May 7, 2021 ROBLOX announced the launch of a new virtual item known as the Game Ticket which allows players to purchase one game a month for 6 months (at half price). Players must be signed in and have a valid payment method in order to access the store.

The only way that these items have any value is if developers add more to the game and make them items that are actually worth something within your virtual world. If that happens then these fake items will be worth even more than what you payed for them originally because the developers added real content to the game.

On February 4, 2021, Roblox announced that all "Spam" accounts would have their control access taken away for 24 hours. This was done following a warning sent out on January 20th.[69] Spam accounts created prior to August 10th 2021, will receive a permanent ban on February 5th.

On April 6, 2021, the company launched a virtual reality project called "ROBLOX VR". It allows users to play in the same virtual world and see each other's avatars. On March 22, 2021 ROBLOX released a new version of its app called Ava (ROBLOX's Mobile Application). See above section for more details.

If you play "Robloxian life" long enough, you'll notice that the costs really add up. For every point someone wins, the game will cost the player between $3-$10 depending on how many points are needed to win a double prize. Although this is not completely true for all games, it does affect most games so players can expect to spend a lot of money just for some points or winning prizes.

On August 15, 2021 (12:00 PM), ROBLOX released a new website design. This redesign adds a many features and improvements such as new search function, expanded news section, easier access to games and groups/communities, expanded mobile version of the site, ability to message anyone on the website regardless of whether they are a user or staff/trade with users without the need to add them first (members must have this feature enabled), expanded trades panel with detailed card information, ability to cancel trades before they are completed when there are no funds involved on either side of the trade to prevent scams that involve giving out items for free and getting items or money in return but never giving back the items that were given.

As of April 2021, there are over 2,000 games on Roblox. Many of them are "clones" of other players' games made by other players, which can lead to copyright issues if the original creators do not want to share their work. Players may be able to report these games as well as block people who play them from their online profiles or in-game friends list. Some games have caused controversy with their focus on violence, sexuality and racism. However, Roblox staff have stated that the problem lies in the people who play these games, not in the games themselves.

A serious game should be fun whether you spend money on it or not. The developer should not make a profit from people who don't care about winning but rather just want to play and have fun. If there is real value in the game then it can sustain itself through micro transactions that offer cosmetic enhancements only, by providing new texture patterns, color schemes, new props, etcetera.
