ROBLOX has also been compared to popular game Minecraft. In many ways, they are similar; both games have been developed by one company (Tencent) and are usually sold on the same platform (Windows, OS X, iOS, Android). Another close similarity is that they both have their own in-game currency system. However, Minecraft has a different style of gameplay relating to platforming; while ROBLOX players build and destroy using building blocks, Minecraft players explore a world.

A serious game should be fun whether you spend money on it or not. The developer should not make a profit from people who don't care about winning but rather just want to play and have fun. If there is real value in the game then it can sustain itself through micro transactions that offer cosmetic enhancements only, by providing new texture patterns, color schemes, new props, etcetera.

The CEO of Roblox is David Baszucki, also known as "Devdog". He made his first $1 million by using a stock option from a company that he had worked at called Original Media. He was fired from the company for not coming up with any new products despite having achieved success in the existing ones. After this, he started to work on ROBLOX alongside his friend Owen Hill. Although Roblox was founded only in 2021, they had already made their first $1 million by 2021.

On February 2nd, 2021, an announcement was made by ROBLOX as they were planning on allowing users to purchase 'Clips' which are in-game blocks and scenarios that can be used in their games.[108] These Clips would later become part of their new launch system that will be called Studio and released at a later date.

Here is where things get a little confusing but stick with me for a second and I'll link things together for you. When you get Robux gems and tokens from winning games, there is no value in the items you receive. There is no way to spend those items on anything in this game because they don't have any value. You can't sell them, you can't trade them for anything, they don't have in game money attached to them, etcetera.
