ROBLOX has banned thousands of accounts, usually for viral videos made by "trolls" or people who want to annoy other users/admins. Most of the bans these users receive are handed out by administrators but every once in a while a user will get banned for a "troll" video or similar reason. Some are also apparently banned because they made potentially offensive comments in the chatbox, not for any type of post or action that breaks the TOS.

There are also people who scam other players by selling items with prices they can't get for items that aren't worth much at all when you try to sell them. I once had someone scam me because of that. They told me their account was hacked and that they could fix it for me if I give them one of my item. So I gave them one and they scammed me. Another problem is when people are posting comments and other players comment back at them about it. There is a lot of spamming going on, but the worst part is there is a lot of inappropriate content that is being made like adult themes, swearing, and inappropriate skins.

But though I am young, I thought that Minecraft was always meant for little kids; unlike Roblox, it wasn't purchased by me or my parents, and there were no advertisements present. So my opinion on both games is that they are really great for little kids because they're safe and easy to use. For adults, they are not worth the time. But from what I have heard, and from my own experiences, Roblox is a game that all kindergartners should be playing. It's definitely not recommended for adults or even teenagers.
