Almost immediately after the release of this feature, a large amount of "spam" messages began to appear on social media platforms such as Twitter and Facebook. These occurred in the form of "spam links" that were posted by players who were seeking to make a profit. Roblox later modified its terms and conditions which resulted in all links being blocked from being posted until December 22nd, 2021.[76]

In February 2021, it was reported that a game called "Miner's Haven" has been criticized by Roblox users for having a suicide feature where players would have the option of killing themselves when their health reached zero. The players who played this game received a message from the developer named Master Zen said that he was working on an update that removed this feature. The update was released in March 2021 and it included an anti-suicide feature where the health would reset to 100 instead of 0. However, the developer confirmed that he would "still allow players to commit suicide if they are in the mood". To make up for this issue, Master Zen released a series of development updates that included fixing bugs and adding new features to "Miner's Haven".

The purpose of this update was to improve the player's experience of ROBLOX's website and also earn more revenue for ROBLOX by making users spend more time on their website (thus charging users extra money). The biggest change in this update was the live chat feature, which allows players to communicate with other players while playing and has recently been updated to be implemented directly into every game on the site.
