ROBLOX has been criticized many times since its creation. Many users have been dissatisfied with ROBLOX's in-game currency system which involves real money transactions. The price of things such as hats and shirts can be absurdly high, which causes some users to scam others out of their money. This can discourage people from making positive contributions to the game due to its poor reputation among many players.

ROBLOX collects account information from users using its Trusted ID system. The process is designed to make it easier for ROBLOX to provide players with a personalized experience and more opportunities to earn credits online. The program does treat user privacy concerns seriously, however, and requires notice before any account information becomes public. Players can adjust their personal settings on their profile page on the website.

In 2021, ROBLOX launched a new feature called Builders Club which allows players to create their own games. Builders Club costs 10 ROBUX to join and provides a variety of benefits such as allowing players to create games, more options for game creation including scripting (Lua, in ROBLOX's case), increased visibility, can use the "Builders Club" tag in places like their profile and group titles, ability to add new hats to the catalog, t-shirt sales in online store.

Roblox provides wireless headsets in the form of headphones and microphones. This enables players to communicate through the game, chat with other Roblox users, and play games with other players. In some online games, players are able to play "mini-games" such as "Horseball" that involve shooting a ball across the screen to attack another player. However, in Roblox, mini-games give physical feedback from hitting objects in the game world; for example, when they jump off a ledge in an abandoned mine shaft.
